

The Creation Gives Praise

A call to worship
By David Radcliff

One: We gather this morning amidst a great cloud of witnesses!

All: The whole creation gives praise to the Lord!

One: The loon, the baboon, the creatures of forest and field, marsh and reef—they raise their voices to honor their Maker!

All: Let our voices join the chorus: hoot-hoot, tweet-tweet, swish-swish, roooooaaaaarrrrrrr!

One: And don't we make fine music together—a joyful noise before our Lord!

All: Now and forever, let these voices of land and sea lead us in our psalm of praise, for the Lord has made us, one and all!

One: Praise to the Lord, the Maker of all things good!
