

Application form: Solidarity Worker
New Community Project

Name:

Age:            Sex:

Home Address:

Current Address:

Email Address:

Please provide your passport number, date of expiration, place of issue, and name as it appears on your passport:

Please provide two emergency contacts (names and contact information):

What are the dates of your availability for being a Solidarity Worker (beginning and ending dates)?

Level of education and areas of primary study:

List any languages other than English in which you are fluent:

List languages in which you have some ability to speak and comprehend:

List international travel (and/or intercultural experiences of any kind), including length of stay and kind of experience:

Where are you interested in serving as a Solidarity Worker? Why do you feel drawn to that area?

How would you describe your spiritual journey?

Briefly describe any public speaking experience you have had:

What are your strengths and weaknesses in regard to living in close proximity to others with whom you may be serving:

Please list your interests and skills, noting whether you are highly skilled (have taught or able to teach) or simply have an interest and/or familiarity (past volunteers have served in these areas: tailoring program, reforestation program, girl child education foundation, school/education in general, guiding and counseling, tutoring, and coaching):

As the primary responsibility for funding this experience falls on the participant, will you be able to raise sufficient funds by the date of departure?

Provide three character references beyond your immediate family (please supply name, email address and phone number):

If accepted as a Solidarity Worker, you may be asked to attend a one-day orientation session prior to participation.

Pledge

If accepted as a Solidarity Worker, I agree to:

- live simply and frugally out of respect for and in solidarity with the host community
- be culturally respectful at all times
- not give financial or other materially-valuable gifts to individuals or groups without discussion with team leaders
- work hard at relating to the other volunteers
- abide by the counsel of our hosts and the team regarding appropriate behavior while in the community
- understand this to be a learning experience, where I can expect to both give and receive

Signed:

Date:

Thank you for your interest in being a Solidarity Worker!

Email completed form to: ncp@newcommunityproject.org or mail to address below.

New Community Project
718 Wilder Street
Elgin, IL 60123

Questions? Call or email: 888-800-2985/ncp@newcommunityproject.org
www.newcommunityproject.org